

New Outbreak of African Swine Fever in Russian Boar

02 September 2014

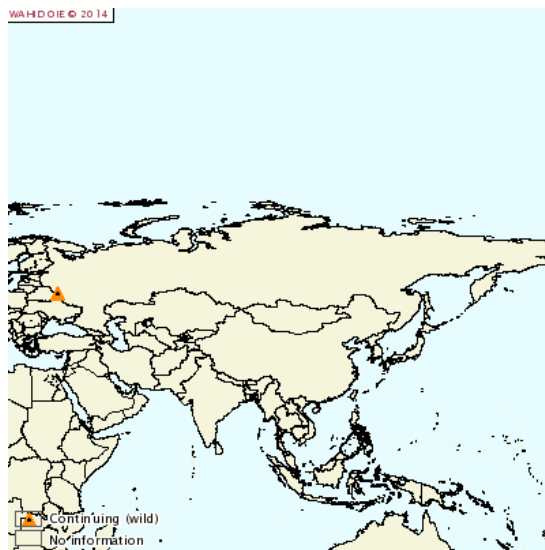

RUSSIA - There has been one new outbreak of African Swine Fever (ASF) reported in the Smolenskaya area, located in Russia.

A total of six wild boar were found dead infected with the fever.

As control measures the area is being quarantined.

The source of the outbreak is still unknown.

ThePigSite News Desk